

CALL FOR PAPERS

Workshop on American Indigenous Languages

Santa Barbara, CA

April 30th-May 1st, 2010

The Linguistics department at the University of California, Santa Barbara announces its 13th annual Workshop on American Indigenous Languages (WAIL), which provides a forum for the discussion of theoretical, descriptive, and practical studies of the indigenous languages of the Americas.

Anonymous abstracts are invited for talks on any topic relevant to the study of language in the Americas. Talks will be 20 minutes, followed by 10 minutes for discussion. Abstracts should be 500 words or less (excluding examples and/or references) and can be submitted online at <http://linguistlist.org/confcustom/wail2010>. Hard copy submissions will be accepted from those who do not have internet access. Individuals may submit abstracts for one single-authored and one co-authored paper. Please indicate your source(s) and type(s) of data in the abstract (e.g. recordings, texts, conversational, elicited, narrative, etc.). For co-authored papers, please indicate who plans to present the paper as well as who will be in attendance.

Special panel:

This year's workshop will include a panel presented by academic and community-based researchers working on the documentation, description and revitalization of their heritage languages. Talks will be 20 minutes each, followed by a group discussion/question-and-answer period.

Online submissions: Abstracts may be submitted in the following formats: PDF, RTF, or Microsoft Word document.

For hard copy submissions: Please send four copies of your abstract, along with a 3x5 card with the following information: (1) your name; (2) affiliation; (3) mailing address; (4) phone number; (5) email address; (6) title of your paper; (7) whether your submission is for the general session or the Special Panel.

Send hard copy submissions to:      Workshop on American Indigenous Languages
