

Special Project Write-up Guideline

Type a report that is 1 page in length with the following information:

1. Short description of what you did or what the event was about.
Include event name, time, and location.
2. Write about how your project is relevant to Health Education and its message.
3. Feel free to write down any other reflections you have about your project.